SCHEDULE: Forms

INTERPRETATION

Interpretation

1. (1) In these Regulations—

“Act” means the Elections Act;

“building”, in relation to a Polling Division, means—

- (a) a public building in the Polling Division; or
- (b) if no public building is located in the Polling Division, any building;

“enumeration period” means the period set out in section 4 of the Regulations;

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 2)

“Form” means a form set out in the Schedule to these Regulations;

“prescribed” means prescribed by the Governor.

(2) A reference in these Regulations to a preliminary list for a Polling Division is a reference—

- (a) in the case of a preliminary list for an Electoral District that comprises one Polling Division, to the preliminary list for the Electoral District; and
- (b) in the case of an Electoral District that comprises more than one Polling Division, to that part of a preliminary list that relates to a particular Polling Division.

(3) A person who is required to deliver a claim, notice of objection or other document to the Registration Officer may effect delivery by leaving the document addressed to the Registration Officer, or causing it to be left, at his office during office hours.

(4) A person who is required to deliver a notice or other document to a person other than the Registration Officer, may effect delivery on the person by leaving the document, or causing it to be left—

- (a) at the address of the person as given by him for that purpose or as appearing on the relevant preliminary list or list of claimants; or
- (b) if there is no such address, at his last known residence.

FORM OF LIST

Form of list of voters

2. The names in each preliminary list of voters shall be arranged in alphabetical order on Form 1, or in street order on Form 3, as determined by the Supervisor of Elections and shall be numbered consecutively beginning with the number one.

ENUMERATION

Application of sections 4 to 25

3. Sections 4 to 25 apply to the enumeration year.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 3)

Commencement of enumeration

4. The Registration Officer for an Electoral District shall, between 1st July and 30th September in the enumeration year, cause to be prepared in accordance with the Act and these Regulations a preliminary list of all persons who are qualified as voters in each Polling Division in the Electoral District.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 4)

Appointment of enumerators

5. The Registration Officer shall in Form 5 appoint a person to be enumerator for each Polling Division in the Electoral District.

Qualification of enumerators

6. Each enumerator shall be qualified as a voter in any Electoral District.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 5)

Removal by Registration Officer

7. The Registration Officer may at any time replace any enumerator appointed by him by appointing another enumerator to act in his place, and any enumerator so replaced shall, on request in writing signed by the Registration Officer, deliver to the person appointed in his place or to any other authorized person, any instructions, index books or other papers and any information which he has obtained for the purpose of the performance of his duties.

Oath or affirmation of office of enumerator

8. (1) Every enumerator shall forthwith on his appointment take an oath or affirmation as enumerator in Form 6, detach it from the form of appointment and send it to the Registration Officer.

(2) The Registration Officer shall certify in the manner appearing on Form 6 that the enumerator has taken the oath or affirmation.

Registration notice

9. The enumerator shall, immediately after his appointment, affix on 2 buildings in his Polling Division, a copy of a registration notice in Form 7.

Right of entry on premises

10. (1) Every enumerator may enter upon any premises in the Polling Division in respect of which he is appointed and there make the enquiries that in his opinion are necessary for the purpose of obtaining information as to the persons qualified to be registered as voters.

(2) No enumerator shall enter upon any premises—

- (a) except during daylight hours, unless the occupier of the premises consents to his entry otherwise than during those hours; or
- (b) at any time when he is not wearing an enumerator's badge supplied to him by the Supervisor of Elections.

(3) Where any enumerator enters upon any premises, he may ask the questions of any person on the premises who appears to him to be of the age of 16 years or over, that in his opinion are necessary to enable him to obtain the information referred to in subsection (1).

House-to-house enquiry

11. (1) After taking his oath or affirmation as enumerator, each enumerator shall, during the enumeration period, ascertain by a house-to-house enquiry the name, address and occupation of every person qualified to vote for the election of a member of the Assembly in the Polling Division for which the enumerator has been appointed.

(2) When making a house-to-house enquiry, an enumerator shall cause—

- (a) every person who believes that he is qualified or will be qualified on the qualifying date to be registered as a voter to complete an application in Form 8 to be registered as a voter in the Polling Division for which the enumerator has been appointed; or
- (b) an adult in the household in which a person referred to in paragraph (a) resides, to complete an application in Form 8 for that person to be registered as a voter in the Polling Division for which the enumerator has been appointed.

(3) When an enumerator is satisfied that a person is qualified or will be qualified on the qualifying date to be registered as a voter, the enumerator shall enter the name, address and occupation of that person in an index book in Form 10 and shall use the index book to prepare the preliminary list of voters for the Polling Division for which he has been appointed.

(4) Before departing from a household in respect of which he has made an entry in the index book of persons qualified to be registered as voters, the enumerator shall make a copy of the entry in Form 11, sign it and leave it at the household.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 6)

Manner of making enquiry

12. (1) When making a house-to-house enquiry, every enumerator shall wear and prominently display an enumerator's badge provided by the Supervisor of Elections as evidence of his authority to enter the premises for the purposes of a house-to-house enquiry.

(2) Every enumerator shall keep the scrutineers in his Polling Division informed of the notices issued by him in respect of the enumeration and of the times at which such enumerator proposes to commence or continue the house-to-house enquiry for purposes of the enumeration.

(3) No enumerator shall, in the course of performing his duties of an enumerator, ask any question or make any remark to any person on any premises entered by him with a view to ascertaining or to influencing the political opinions of any person on those premises.

(4) An enumerator who contravenes subsection (3) is liable on summary conviction to a penalty of $4,000 and to forfeiture of his right to payment for his services as enumerator.

Complete enumeration

13. Each enumerator shall exercise the utmost care in preparing the preliminary list of voters for the Polling Division for which he has been appointed and in particular shall take all necessary precautions to ensure that the list when completed—

- (a) contains the name, address and occupation of every qualified voter in the Polling Division; and

- (b) does not contain the name of any person who is not so qualified.

Application for scrutineers

14. Any political party that desires to have a scrutineer appointed in connection with the registration of voters in a Polling Division shall make application for his appointment in Form 13.

Offences relating to applications for appointment of scrutineers

15. Any person who—

- (a) makes any false statement in an application for the appointment of a scrutineer; or
(b) without authority or instructions makes or tenders such an application; is liable on summary conviction to a penalty of $4,000.

Appointment of scrutineers

16. The Registration Officer shall in Form 14 appoint as scrutineers the persons nominated under section 9 of the Act.

Oath or affirmation to be taken by scrutineer

17. Every scrutineer shall forthwith on his appointment take an oath or affirmation as scrutineer in Form 15, detach it and give it to the Registration Officer who shall, in the manner appearing on the Form, certify that the scrutineer has taken the oath or affirmation.

Functions of scrutineer

18. (1) Subject to subsection (2), any scrutineer appointed under section 16 may accompany the enumerator for the Polling Division for which he is appointed as a scrutineer at all times when the enumerator is making a house-to-house enquiry.

(2) Every scrutineer shall at all times when acting as a scrutineer wear a badge supplied by the Supervisor of Elections indicating that he is a scrutineer.

(3) No scrutineer shall, in the course of accompanying any enumerator, ask any question or make any remark to any person upon any premises entered by him with a view to ascertaining or to influencing the political views of such person or of any other person upon those premises except that a scrutineer may, on visiting any premises, say, "I represent the party."

(4) A scrutineer who contravenes subsection (3) is liable on summary conviction to a penalty of $4,000 and to forfeiture of his right to payment for his services as scrutineer and on conviction his appointment as scrutineer ceases.

Offences relating to duties of scrutineers

19. Any scrutineer who wilfully obstructs, molests or threatens any enumerator or other election officer in the performance of his duties is liable on summary conviction to a penalty of $4,000 and to forfeiture of any right to payment for his services as scrutineer and on conviction his appointment as scrutineer ceases.

Information on preliminary list

20. The names, addresses and occupations of all voters who are included in a preliminary list shall be written up according to Form 1 or Form 3, as directed by the Registration Officer.

Completion, certification and transmission of list

21. (1) The enumerator shall complete the preliminary list not later than 10 days after the last day of the enumeration period.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 8)

(2) The enumerator shall—

(a) when the preliminary list is completed, certify it in Form 16; and

(b) not later than the following day, transmit it to the Registration Officer.

Enumerators to certify copies of preliminary list

22. (1) The Registration Officer shall on the receipt of the preliminary lists from the enumerators prepare and complete, not later than 25 days after the last day of the enumeration period, 4 typewritten copies of each list.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 9)

(2) The typewritten copies shall then be checked by the respective enumerators and certified in Form 16.

Distribution of certified copies of preliminary list

23. The Registration Officer shall—

(a) distribute 2 copies of the certified preliminary list to each enumerator; and

(b) arrange one complete set of lists numerically according to Polling Divisions and send it to the Supervisor of Elections and keep the remaining set for himself.

Posting up of preliminary list and notice

24. The enumerator of a Polling Division shall, 27 days after the last day of the enumeration period, affix or cause to be affixed to each of 2 buildings in his Polling Division, a certified copy of the preliminary list prepared by him and a notice in Form 17, and the copy and the notice shall remain affixed for 12 days including Sundays.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 10 and R.A. 26/2008, s. 2)

Oath or affirmation of enumerator on completion of work

25. On the completion of his work, the enumerator shall take an oath or affirmation in Form 20.

PROCEDURE AFTER THE ENUMERATION YEAR

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 11(1))

Central Electoral Office

26. (1) In accordance with section 5 of the Act, effective 1st January 2009, the Central Electoral Office is set up.

(2) The Central Electoral Office shall be open during regular business hours Monday through Friday, except on public holidays.

- (3) The Supervisor of Elections may—
- (a) designate a Registration Officer as Electoral Registration Officer, who shall, in addition to the powers and duties assigned to him under the Act and these Regulations or any other enactment, be responsible for the management of the Central Electoral Office; and
 - (b) appoint such staff as are necessary for the administration of the Central Electoral Office.

Continuous registration of voters

- 27. (1) After the enumeration year, a person—
- (a) who is qualified or will be qualified on the next qualifying date to be registered as a voter in an Electoral District and who is not registered on the existing register of voters for that Electoral District;
 - (b) whose name appears on the existing register of voters for an Electoral District and who has changed his name, address or occupation but who remains qualified to be registered as a voter in that Electoral District; or
 - (c) whose name appears on the existing register of voters for an Electoral District and who has changed address and is ordinarily resident in an Electoral District other than the one in which he is registered;

may appear in person at the Central Electoral Office and submit to the Electoral Registration Officer an application in Form 9 to be registered on the quarterly list of voters for the relevant Electoral District.

(2) The Electoral Registration Officer may make inquiries and request and review documents that he considers necessary to determine whether on the next qualifying date the person referred to in subsection (1) is qualified or will be qualified to be registered as a voter in an Electoral District.

(3) When the Electoral Registration Officer is satisfied that the person referred to in subsection (1) is qualified or will be qualified on the next qualifying date to be registered as a voter in an Electoral District, the Electoral Registration Officer shall give to the person a certificate of provisional registration in Form 12.

(4) The Electoral Registration Officer shall enter on the quarterly list of voters for the relevant Electoral District, the name, address and occupation of a person to whom a certificate of provisional registration was given under subsection (3).

Form of quarterly lists

- 28. (1) The quarterly list of voters for each Electoral District shall be in Form 4.
- (2) The names in each quarterly list of voters shall be arranged in alphabetical order according to the surname of the voters and shall be numbered consecutively beginning with the number one.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 12)

Publication of quarterly lists

- 29. (1) The Electoral Registration Officer shall publish the quarterly list of voters for each Electoral District not later than the 42nd day of every quarter of every year.

(2) In addition to any method of publication employed under subsection (1), the Electoral Registration Officer shall post the quarterly list of voters for each Electoral District by affixing the list, together with a revision notice in Form 18, to the Central Electoral Office and to 2 buildings in the Electoral District to which the list relates.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 12)

Post-enumeration register of voters and preliminary lists

30. (1) After the enumeration year, the Electoral Registration Officer shall prepare the register of voters for each Electoral District on a quarterly basis in accordance with the Act and these Regulations.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Electoral Registration Officer shall, on a quarterly basis, prepare a preliminary list of voters in Form 2 in accordance with the Act and these Regulations.

(3) The names in the preliminary list of voters shall be arranged in alphabetical order according to the surname of the voters and shall be numbered consecutively beginning with the number one.

(4) The Electoral Registration Officer shall publish the preliminary list of voters for each Electoral District not later than the 72nd day of every quarter.

(5) In addition to any method of publication employed under subsection (4), the Electoral Registration Officer shall post the preliminary list of voters for each Electoral District by affixing the list, together with a revision notice in Form 19, to the Central Electoral Office and to 2 buildings in the Electoral District to which the list relates.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 12)

CLAIMS, OBJECTIONS, CORRECTIONS AND COMPLETION OF LISTS

Forms to be available

31. The Registration Officer of each Electoral District shall make available at the places in the Electoral District directed by the Governor a sufficient number of copies of Forms 21, 22, 23, 24 and 25.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 13 and R.A. 24/2008, s. 2)

Supply of forms

32. The Registration Officer shall, without fee, on the application of any person, supply forms of claim and notices of objection.

Names on more than one list and mis-spelt names

33. (1) During the enumeration year, any voter—

- (a) whose name appears on more than one preliminary list of voters shall in Form 24 forthwith notify the Registration Officer of the Polling Division in which he elects to have his name retained; or
- (b) whose name is spelt incorrectly on a preliminary list of voters shall in Form 25 forthwith notify the Registration Officer of the Polling Division of the inaccuracy.

(2) After the enumeration year, any voter—

- (a) whose name appears on a quarterly list of voters or a preliminary list of voters for more than one Electoral District, shall in Form 24 forthwith notify the Electoral Registration Officer; or

- (b) whose name is spelt incorrectly on a quarterly list of voters or a preliminary list of voters shall in Form 25 forthwith notify the Electoral Registration Officer of the inaccuracy.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 14)

Claims to be delivered to Registration Officer

34. (1) During the enumeration year, any person who claims to be entitled to be registered as a voter, and who is not entered, or is entered in an incorrect manner or with incorrect particulars in the preliminary list of voters, may claim to be registered, or to be registered correctly, as the case may be, by delivering to the Registration Officer, not later than 38 days after the last day of the enumeration period, a notice of claim in Form 21.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 14)

(2) Upon receipt of a claim referred to in subsection (1), the Registration Officer may make inquiries and request and review documents that he considers necessary to determine whether the claimant is entitled to be registered as a voter in, or whether corrections should be made in relation to the claimant to, the preliminary list of voters.

(R.A. 24/2008, s. 3)

(3) After the enumeration year, any person who—

- (a) holds a certificate of provisional registration and who is not entered or is entered in an incorrect manner or with incorrect particulars in the quarterly list of voters for an Electoral District; or
- (b) applied to be registered on the quarterly list of voters for an Electoral District and did not receive a certificate of provisional registration, but who reasonably believes he is qualified to be registered;

may claim to be registered or to be registered correctly, as the case may be, by delivering a notice of claim in Form 22 to the Electoral Registration Officer not later than 7 days after the first day on which the quarterly list of voters was published.

(4) Upon receipt of a claim referred to in subsection (3), the Electoral Registration Officer shall review the claim to assess whether—

- (a) the claimant is not listed, is listed incorrectly or is listed with incorrect particulars on the quarterly list of voters; and
- (b) the claim contains or is accompanied by information necessary to make the required determinations.

(R.A. 24/2008, s. 3)

(5) If additional information is required, the Electoral Registration Officer shall give notice to the claimant setting out what additional information is required and a statement to the effect that failure to provide the information within 7 days will result in the claim being rejected.

(R.A. 24/2008, s. 3)

(6) If the claimant does not provide the information within 7 days of the date of the notice—

- (a) the claim shall be rejected; and

(b) the Electoral Registration Officer shall give notice to the claimant that the claim is rejected.

(R.A. 24/2008, s. 3)

(7) If a person whose claim is rejected under subsection (6) wants to make another claim at a later time, he shall submit a new notice of claim in Form 22 and subsections (4) to (6) apply to the new notice of claim.

(R.A. 24/2008, s. 3)

Publication of claims to insertion or correction

35. (1) During the enumeration year, the Registration Officer shall, not later than 40 days after the last day of the enumeration period, cause to be affixed for 5 days to 2 buildings in the Polling Division a list, in Form 28, of names of persons living in the Polling Division who claim under section 34(1) that their names should be inserted in, or that corrections should be made to, the preliminary list of voters.

(2) After the enumeration year, the Electoral Registration Officer shall, not later than 8 days after the first day of publishing of a quarterly list of voters, publish for 7 days a list, in Form 28, of names of persons who claim under section 34(3) that their names should be inserted in, or that corrections should be made to, that quarterly list of voters.

Notice of objection to claims

36. (1) During the enumeration year, any person whose name appears on the preliminary list of voters for an Electoral District may object to the registration of any person whose name is included in the list of claimants prepared in accordance with section 35(1) by delivering or causing to be delivered a notice of objection in Form 23 to the Registration Officer and a copy of the notice to the person whose claim is being objected to.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) shall be delivered not later than 44 days after the last day of the enumeration period.

(3) After the enumeration year, any person whose name appears on the existing register of voters for an Electoral District may object to the registration of any person whose name is included in the list of claimants prepared in accordance with section 35(2) by delivering or causing to be delivered a notice of objection in Form 23 to the Electoral Registration Officer and a copy of the notice to the person whose claim is being objected to.

(4) A notice under subsection (3) shall be delivered not later than 15 days after the first day of publishing of the quarterly list of voters.

(5) When the Registration Officer or the Electoral Registration Officer, as the case may be, receives a notice of objection under this section, he shall immediately deliver or cause to be delivered a notice in Form 26 to the person in respect of whose claim the notice of objection is given and a notice in Form 27 to the person making the objection.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 14)

Publishing lists of objections to claims

37. (1) During the enumeration year, the Registration Officer shall, not later than 45 days after the last day of the enumeration period, cause to be affixed for 5 days to 2 buildings in the Polling Division a list, in Form 29, of names of persons included in the list of claims for the Polling Division to whose registration notice of objection has been given.

(2) After the enumeration year, the Electoral Registration Officer shall, not later than 16 days after the first day of publishing of a quarterly list of voters, publish for 5 days a list, in Form 29, of names of persons included in the list of claims to whose registration notice of objection has been given.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 14)

Notice of objection to registration

38. (1) During the enumeration year, any person whose name appears on the preliminary list for an Electoral District may object to the registration of any person whose name is included in that list by delivering to the Registration Officer notice of objection in Form 23.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) shall be delivered not later than 38 days after the last day of the enumeration period.

(3) After the enumeration year—

- (a) any person whose name appears on the existing register of voters last published for an Electoral District, may object to the registration of a person whose name is included on the quarterly list of voters for that Electoral District; or
- (b) any person whose name appears on the preliminary list of voters for an Electoral District, may object to the registration of a person whose name is included on that list;

by delivering notice of objection in Form 23 to the Electoral Registration Officer.

(4) A notice of an objection referred to in paragraph (3)(a) shall be delivered not later than 10 days after the first day of publishing the quarterly list of voters and a notice of an objection referred to in paragraph (3)(b) shall be delivered not later than 8 days after the first day of publishing the preliminary list of voters.

(5) When the Registration Officer or the Electoral Registration Officer, as the case may be, receives a notice of objection under this section, he shall immediately deliver or cause to be delivered a notice in Form 26 to the person in respect of whose registration the notice of objection is given and a notice in Form 27 to the person making the objection.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 14)

Publication of objections to registration

39. (1) During the enumeration year, the Registration Officer shall, not later than 40 days after the last day of the enumeration period, cause to be affixed for 5 days to 2 buildings in the Polling Division a list in Form 29 of names of persons whose names appear on the preliminary list of voters to whose registration notice of objection has been given.

(2) After the enumeration year, the Electoral Registration Officer shall—

- (a) not later than 11 days after the first day of posting of a quarterly list of voters, publish for 7 days a list, in Form 29, of persons whose names appear on that quarterly list and to whose registration notice of objection has been given; and
- (b) not later than 9 days after the first day of posting of a preliminary list of voters, publish for 5 days a list, in Form 29, of persons whose names appear on that preliminary list and to whose registration notice of objection has been given.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 14)

Consideration of claims

40. (1) The Registration Officer or the Electoral Registration Officer, as the case may be, shall consider all claims of which notice is given to him in accordance with these Regulations and in respect of which no notice of objection is given, and if he considers that any claim may be allowed without further enquiry, shall give notice in Form 30 to the claimant that his claim is allowed.

(2) Where no notice of objection has been given in respect of a claim, if the Registration Officer or the Electoral Registration Officer, as the case may be, is not satisfied that a claim can be allowed without enquiry, he shall give at least 5 clear days notice to the claimant of the time and place at which the claim will be considered by him.

(3) On the consideration of any claim by the Registration Officer or the Electoral Registration Officer, as the case may be, any person appearing to the Registration Officer or the Electoral Registration Officer to be interested may appear and be heard in person or by any other person, other than counsel, on his behalf.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 14)

Consideration of objections

41. (1) The Registration Officer or the Electoral Registration Officer, as the case may be, shall consider all objections of which notice has been given to him in accordance with these Regulations and for that purpose give at least 5 clear days notice to the objector and to the person in respect of whose registration the notice of objection has been given of the time and place at which the objection will be considered by him.

(2) On the consideration of any objection or other matter by the Registration Officer or the Electoral Registration Officer, as the case may be, any person appearing to the Registration Officer or the Electoral Registration Officer to be interested may appear and be heard in person or by any other person, other than counsel, on his behalf.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 14)

Correction of lists

42. (1) During the enumeration year, the Registration Officer shall make any correction to the preliminary list of voters that is required to carry out his decision in respect of any claim or objection.

(2) After the enumeration year, the Electoral Registration Officer shall make any correction—

- (a) to a quarterly list of voters that is required to carry out his decisions in respect of any claim or objection; and
- (b) to a preliminary list of voters that is required to carry out his decisions in respect of any objection.

(3) In addition to any correction required to carry out a decision in respect of any claim or objection, to ensure that the preliminary list of voters is complete and accurate as a register, the Registration Officer or Electoral Registration Officer, as the case may be, may—

- (a) remove duplicate entries (subject to any expression of choice by persons affected as to those entries);
- (b) expunge the names of persons who are dead or subject to any legal disqualification; and
- (c) correct clerical errors.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 14)

Objection to corrections

43. (1) During the enumeration year, where the Registration Officer makes a correction referred to in section 42(3)(a) or (b) in the preliminary list of voters, he shall give notice in Form 31 to the person affected by the correction and allow that person an opportunity of objecting to the correction and, if necessary, of being heard with respect to it.

(2) After the enumeration year, where the Electoral Registration Officer makes any correction referred to in section 42(3)(a) or (b) in a quarterly list of voters or in a preliminary list of voters, he shall give notice in Form 31 to the person affected by the correction and allow that person an opportunity of objecting to the correction and, if necessary, of being heard with respect to it.

(3) The Registration Officer or Electoral Registration Officer, as the case may be, shall make any correction to the quarterly list of voters or preliminary list of voters, as the case may be, that is required to carry out his decision in respect of any objection under this section.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 14)

Completion of lists

44. The Registration Officer or, in accordance with section 17 of the Act, the Electoral Registration Officer, as the case may be, shall ensure that the quarterly or preliminary lists of voters required under the Act are completed as expeditiously as possible in time for publication of the register of voters in accordance with the Act and these Regulations.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 14)

Certification and publication, etc. of revised preliminary lists in enumeration year

45. (1) During the enumeration year, the Registration Officer shall, after revising the preliminary list of voters in accordance with sections 42 and 43—

- (a) certify three copies of the revised preliminary list in Form 32 for his Electoral District;
- (b) deliver one certified copy of the revised preliminary list to the Supervisor of Elections and retain the other copies; and
- (c) not later than 59 days after the last day of the enumeration period, publish a certified copy of the revised preliminary list.

(2) When published in accordance with these Regulations, the revised preliminary list of voters for an Electoral District constitutes the register of voters for that Electoral District.

(3) During the enumeration year, after the date on which the register is proclaimed to be in force, the Registration Officer shall, on the application of any person during business hours and on payment of the prescribed fee, furnish the person with a copy of the register of voters.

(4) In the enumeration year, when a writ is issued, the Registration Officer shall immediately transmit a certified copy of the register of voters to the Returning Officer for each Electoral District.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 14)

Certification and publication of revised quarterly lists post-enumeration

46. After the enumeration year, the Electoral Registration Officer shall, after revising a quarterly list of voters in accordance with sections 42 and 43—

- (a) certify two copies of the revised quarterly list in Form 33 for each Electoral District;
- (b) deliver one certified copy of the revised quarterly list to the Supervisor of Elections and retain the other copy; and
- (c) not later than 28 days after the first day of posting of the quarterly list, publish a certified copy of that revised quarterly list.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 14)

Transfer from revised quarterly lists to preliminary lists

47. (1) After the enumeration year, the Electoral Registration Officer shall, not later than the 71st day of every quarter, transfer the names, addresses and occupations of persons named on the revised quarterly list of voters for an Electoral District to the preliminary list of voters for that Electoral District.

(2) When the name, address and occupation of a person described in section 27(1)(c) is transferred to the preliminary list of voters for an Electoral District, the Registration Officer shall delete the name, address and occupation of that person from the preliminary list of voters for the Electoral District in which that person was previously registered.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 14)

Certification and publication, etc. of revised preliminary lists post-enumeration

48. (1) After the enumeration year, the Electoral Registration Officer shall, after revising a preliminary list of voters in accordance with sections 42 and 43—

- (a) certify three copies of the revised preliminary list in Form 32 for his Electoral District;
- (b) deliver one certified copy of the revised preliminary list to the Supervisor of Elections and retain the other copies; and
- (c) not later than the last day of every quarter of every year, publish a certified copy of the revised preliminary list.

(2) When published in accordance with these Regulations, the revised preliminary list of voters for an Electoral District constitutes the register of voters for that Electoral District.

(3) After the enumeration year, after the date on which the register is proclaimed to be in force, the Electoral Registration Officer shall, on the application of any person during business hours and on payment of the prescribed fee, furnish the person with a copy of the register of voters.

(4) After the enumeration year, when a writ is issued, the Electoral Registration Officer shall immediately transmit a certified copy of the register of voters to the Returning Officer for each Electoral District.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 14)

Insertion of names in register of voters

49. (1) If the Registration Officer or the Electoral Registration Officer, as the case may be, has reasonable cause to believe that the name of any voter who has been included in the preliminary list of voters for any Polling Division has through inadvertence been omitted from the register of voters for that Division, the Registration Officer or the Electoral Registration Officer, as the case may be, shall ascertain by reference to the relevant preliminary list, whether the omission of that name has been made.

(2) If the omission is verified, the Registration Officer or the Electoral Registration Officer, as the case may be, shall insert in the copies of the register of voters retained by him, the name, address and occupation of the voter concerned and initial the correction and shall—

- (a) send a copy of the corrected register to the Supervisor of Elections;
- (b) notify the person whose name was omitted, of the insertion; and
- (c) if the register has been transmitted to the Returning Officer under section 45(4), 48(4) or 50(4)(b), send a copy of the corrected register to the Returning Officer for the Elections District concerned.

(3) The Registration Officer or the Electoral Registration Officer, as the case may be, shall not insert the name of any person—

- (a) expunged by him from the preliminary list of voters in pursuance of a decision in respect of an objection made by him under section 42; or
- (b) at any time after 7 days immediately before polling day.

(4) When a Returning Officer receives a copy of the corrected register in accordance with this section, the Returning Officer shall give notice of the insertion to the persons whom he believes to be likely to be nominated as candidates for the relevant Electoral District or who have actually been nominated and to the presiding officer for the Polling Division concerned.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 14)

Deletion of names from register of voters

50. (1) If, during the period between the revision of any quarterly or preliminary list of voters and nomination day, the Registration Officer or the Electoral Registration Officer, as the case may be, has reasonable cause to believe that there appears on any register of voters the name of any person who is not qualified for inclusion on the register or that any insertion that has been made under section 49 is in respect of a person who is not entitled to be included in the register, he shall hold a special revision to investigate the case.

(2) The Registration Officer or the Electoral Registration Officer as the case may be, shall give at least 5 days notice to the person referred to in subsection (1) of the time and place at which the special revision will take place and at that time and place consider the eligibility of the person to be included in the register of voters.

(3) If the Registration Officer or the Electoral Registration Officer, as the case may be, decides that the name of the person referred to in subsection (1) should not be included in the register of voters, he shall delete the name from the register of voters and initial the deletion on the copies of the register retained by him.

(4) The Registration Officer or the Electoral Registration Officer, as the case may be, shall—

- (a) send a copy of the corrected register to the Supervisor of Elections; and
- (b) if the register has been transmitted to the Returning Officer under section 45(4), 48(4) or 49(2)(c), send a copy of the corrected register to the Returning Officer for the Elections District concerned.

(5) No special revision under this section shall be held later than 7 days after nomination day.

(6) When a Returning Officer receives a copy of the corrected register in accordance with this section, the Returning Officer shall give notice of the deletion to the persons whom he believes to be likely to be nominated as candidates for the relevant Electoral District or who have actually been nominated and to the presiding officer for the Polling Division concerned.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 14)

MISCELLANEOUS

Publication of documents

51. (1) Where the Registration Officer is required by these Regulations to publish any document, he shall publish the document by making the proper entries on the prescribed forms and making a copy of the document available for inspection by the public in his office and electronically, and, if he thinks fit, in any manner that in his opinion is desirable for the purpose of bringing the contents of the document to the notice of those interested.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 15)

(2) Failure to publish a document in accordance with these Regulations does not invalidate the document.

Destroying or defacing documents

52. Any person who without lawful authority destroys, mutilates, defaces or removes, or makes any alteration in any notice published by the Registration Officer in connection with his registration duties, or any copies of a document which have been made available for inspection in pursuance of these Regulations, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $2,000.

Inspection and copies of documents

53. The Registration Officer shall, on the application of a person, allow the person to inspect, and take extracts from, or on payment of the prescribed fee, supply to that person, copies of the lists of voters for any registration unit in his Electoral District and any claim or notice of objection made under these Regulations.

Information from householders, etc.

54. (1) The Registration Officer may by notice in writing require any employer or any householder or any person owning or occupying any land or premises within his Electoral District, or the agent of any of those persons, to give any information in his possession that the Registration Officer may require for the purpose of his duties as Registration Officer.

(2) Any person who fails to give the information referred to in subsection (1) or gives false information in a response to a notice under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $4,000.

Declarations as to age and nationality

55. (1) The Registration Officer, before registering any person as a voter, may, if he thinks it necessary—

- (a) require that person to produce a certificate of birth, or, if that is not practicable, to make a statutory declaration that he has attained the required age; and
- (b) require that person to produce such other evidence, or to make such statutory declaration, respecting his qualification as a voter (other than age) as the Registration Officer considers appropriate.

(2) Where a declaration is required, no fee is payable for it.

(3) The Registration Officer shall during office hours allow any person to inspect and take a copy of a declaration referred to in subsection (1).

Power to require evidence on oath or affirmation

56. The Registration Officer may, at the request of any person interested, or if he thinks fit without a request, on the consideration of any claim, objection, or other matter, require that the evidence tendered by any person should be given on oath or affirmation and may administer an oath or affirmation for the purpose.

Oaths or affirmations of enumerators and scrutineers

57. A Registration Officer may administer an oath or affirmation in the Form referred to in section 8, 17 or 25.

False declaration

58. Any person who in the course of revision of any preliminary list makes before a Registration Officer any statement upon oath or affirmation which he knows to be false, or does not believe to be true, is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for 1 year.

(Am. in L.R. 15/12/2008)

False documentation, etc. for purpose of being registered

59. Any person who is not qualified to be registered as a voter and who, for the purpose of being so registered, wilfully or knowingly gives any false documentation or information to an enumerator, Registration Officer, assistant Registration Officer or Electoral Registration Officer, is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for 1 year or to a fine of $10,000 or to both.

(R.A. 10/2008, s. 16)

Provisions as to misnomer or inaccurate description

60. No misnomer or inaccurate description of any person or place on any list or on any notice shall prejudice the operation of these Regulations as respects that person or place, if the person or place is so designated as to be commonly understood.

Citation

61. These Regulations may be cited as the Election Registration Regulations, Revised Regulations of Anguilla E30-1.

Remuneration of officers

1. (1) Subject to subsections (2), (7) and (8), the Supervisor of Elections shall be paid at the rate of $500 per month.

(2) Where there is an election, the Supervisor of Elections shall be paid—

(a) in relation to a general election, an amount arrived at when the following formula is applied—

$$A = 3 \times (PS \div 12)$$

where—

A = amount payable

PS = annual salary at the lowest step of a Permanent Secretary in the employment of the Government of Anguilla as shown in the Annual Estimates of Revenue and Expenditure as approved by the House of Assembly; or

(b) in relation to a by-election, an amount arrived at when the following formula is applied—

$$A = PS \div 12$$

¹ This Note has been corrected to reflect the renumbering of the Act by Act 11/2008.

where—

A = amount payable

PS = annual salary at the lowest step of a Permanent Secretary in the employment of the Government of Anguilla as shown in the Annual Estimates of Revenue and Expenditure as approved by the House of Assembly.

(3) An amount referred to in subsection (2) becomes payable on the day the Writ of Election is returned to the Governor.

(R.A. 25/2008, s. 1)

(4) The following rates, or amounts, as the case may be, shall be paid to the officers hereinafter mentioned for their services in connection with the registration of voters or the holding of any election, as the case may be—

- | | |
|--|----------------------|
| (a) Electoral Registration Officer | $2,000.00 per month |
| (b) Clerk of the Central Electoral Office | $1,500.00 per month |
| (c) a Returning Officer of an electoral district where the election was contested | $1,125.00 |
| (d) a Returning Officer of an electoral district where the election was uncontested | $ 565.00 |
| (e) a Presiding Officer | $1,050.00 |
| (f) a Poll Clerk | $ 600.00 |
| (g) a Tally Clerk | $ 150.00 |
| (h) a Typist for the typing of each name appearing on the official list of voters | $ 1.25 per name. |

(R.A. 25/2008, s. 1 and R.A. 36/2008, s. 1)

(5) For exceptional reasons shown the Governor may authorise a variation of the above rates in any particular case.

(6) If any amount is payable under this section to a person who is appointed to a public office other than one referred to in this section, that amount shall be payable as an allowance.

(R.A. 25/2008, s. 1)

(7) In the enumeration year, the Supervisor of Elections shall be paid at the rate of $5,000 per month, which shall be payable from one month before the start of the enumeration period referred to in section 4 of the Election Registration Regulations until 2 months after the date on which the register is proclaimed to be in force.

(R.A. 25/2008, s. 1)

(8) For the one-year period beginning 1st January 2009, the Supervisor of Elections shall be paid at the rate of $2,000 per month.

(R.A. 25/2008, s. 1)

(9) For greater certainty—

- (a) in any month when an amount referred to in subsection (2) is payable, that amount shall be paid instead of the rate referred to in subsection (1); and

- (b) when a rate referred to in subsection (7) or (8) is payable, that rate shall be paid instead of the rate referred to in subsection (1).

(R.A. 25/2008, s. 1)

Travelling

2. For travelling in connection with an election or the registration of voters, officers shall be paid at the rate that is payable by way of travelling allowance to public officers.

Statement of candidature

3. (1) The expression “political party” hereinafter appearing means any party, members of which contest an election.

(2) Where candidates from the same political party contest an election the secretary of the party shall file with the Supervisor of Elections a certified joint statement made by such candidates according to the form prescribed in Schedule 1.

Symbols for ballot paper

4. There shall be printed upon every ballot paper opposite the name of every candidate who has been allocated a symbol the appropriate symbol, being one of the symbols shown in Schedule 2.

Party symbol

5. The same symbol may be allotted to every candidate from the same political party, if so requested by that political party.

Allotment of symbols

6. Allotment of symbols shall be at the discretion of the Supervisor of Elections, but so far as possible he shall allot to each political party or individual candidate the symbol requested.
