

PRESS RELEASE

The Ministry of Education announces the new performance criteria for the award of the Anguilla Island Scholarship. Effective 2015, to be awarded the scholarship a candidate must have met the following standard of performance:

Candidates must take subjects at CAPE in two consecutive years.

Candidates must attain seven Units at Grades I to III during that period; at least four of these must be at Grade I.

The seven Units must include Caribbean Studies and Communication Studies; at least one of these Units must be at Grade I. The remaining Units must include two two-unit courses.

Students are asked to take note of this information.
