Facilities for marriages between British subjects resident in the United Kingdom and British subjects resident in Anguilla

1. (1) Where a marriage is intended to be solemnized or contracted in Anguilla between a British subject resident therein and a British subject resident in the United Kingdom, a certificate for marriage lawfully issued in England, Scotland, or Northern Ireland, as the case may be, shall have the same effect as a certificate of notice of marriage lawfully issued in Anguilla.

(2) Where a marriage is intended to be solemnized or contracted in the United Kingdom between a British subject resident in Anguilla and a British subject resident in England, Scotland or Northern Ireland, a certificate of notice of marriage may be issued in Anguilla by a person thereunto authorized by the law of Anguilla, in the like manner as if the marriage were to be solemnized or contracted under circumstances requiring the issue of such certificates and as if both such British subjects were resident in Anguilla.

(a) in the case of England, a certificate for marriage issued by a superintendent registrar;
