REWARDS FOR APPREHENSION OF CRIMINALS ACT

Rewards for apprehension of persons charged with indictable offence

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor to proclaim and offer a reward for the apprehension of any person charged in due form according to law with having committed an indictable offence.

Amount of reward

2. The amount and the conditions of such rewards shall be in the discretion of the Governor, but the amount shall not in any case exceed the sum of $480 for each and every person to be apprehended, but, if there shall be any question as to the person or persons entitled under the provisions of this Act to receive any such award, and if there be more than one person, then as to the proportion of the reward to which each is entitled, the same shall be determined by the Governor in Council, whose decision shall be final.

Payment of reward

3. It shall be lawful for the Governor, on the apprehension of any person for whose apprehension any reward shall have been offered under the authority of this Act, by warrant under his hand directed to the Accountant General or other proper officer to draw from the Consolidated Fund the amount so proclaimed and offered; and the production of such warrant shall be a full and sufficient voucher for the payment by the Accountant General, or other proper officer of the amount so drawn.

(Act 7/2010, s. 26)
