Revised Regulations of Anguilla: A85-5

ANIMALS (DISEASES AND IMPORTATION) ACT (R.S.A. c. A85)

POWERS OF INSPECTOR REGULATIONS

Note: These Regulations are enabled under sections 12 and 14 of the Animals (Diseases and Importation) Act, R.S.A. c. A85.

Interpretation

1. In these Regulations—

"Act" means the Animals (Diseases and Importation) Act;

"disease" means any of the diseases referred to in section 1 of the Act and includes any disease declared to be such by order of the Governor in Council under section 11 of the Act;

"inspector" means the inspector appointed under section 3(1) of the Act, and includes assistant inspectors;

"prohibited country" means—

(a) any country in which there is or is suspected to be an outbreak of disease; or

(b) any country into which there is a probability of the spread of disease from any such country referred to in paragraph (a);

and which is set out in the Schedule;

"vessel" means any ship, schooner, sloop, boat or other floating craft.

Powers of inspector

2. In addition to the powers provided under section 19 of the Act, the inspector shall have power to seize or detain and to cause to be immediately re-exported, destroyed or otherwise dealt with to his satisfaction, any animal, carcass, animal product (including cheese, milk, butter, eggs, ice cream and similar products), fodder, litter, dung, utensils, packing materials (including polythene bags), any birds, whether poultry or not, and any vegetables or fruit, which may be landed inadvertently or otherwise from any vessel or aircraft which has called at or cleared from any prohibited country on its journey to Anguilla.

Cost of seizure, re-exportation, etc., to be met by agent of vessel or aircraft

3. The cost of any seizure, detention, re-exportation, destruction, or other dealing with any matter or thing referred to in section 2 shall be met by the agent of the vessel or aircraft in question, and may be sued for by the inspector or the Attorney General as a debt due to the Crown.
