THE ORGANISATION

Interpretation

1. In this Order, "Organisation" means the World Meteorological Organisation.

Declaration

2. The World Meteorological Organisation is an Organisation of which the United Kingdom and foreign sovereign Powers are members.

Body corporate

3. The Organisation shall have the legal capacities of a body corporate and, except insofar as in any particular case it has expressly waived its immunity, immunity from suit and legal process. No waiver of immunity shall be deemed to extend to any measure of execution.

Inviolability of archives

4. The Organisation shall have the like inviolability of official archives and premises occupied as offices as is accorded in respect of official archives and premises of an envoy of a foreign sovereign Power accredited to Her Majesty.

Exemption from taxes

5. The Organisation shall have the like exemption of relief from taxes and rates, other than taxes on the importation of goods, as is accorded to a foreign sovereign Power.

Exemption from customs duty

6. The Organisation shall have exemption from taxes on the importation of goods directly imported by the Organisation for its official use in Anguilla or for exportation, or on the importation of any publications of the Organisation directly imported by it, such exemption to be subject to compliance with such conditions as the Comptroller of Customs of Anguilla may prescribe for the protection of the revenue.

Exemption from prohibitions and restrictions on importation, etc.

7. The Organisation shall have exemption from prohibitions and restrictions on importation or exportation in the case of goods directly imported or exported by the Organisation for its official use and in the case of any publications of the Organisation directly imported or exported by it.

Reduced rates for telegraphic communications

8. The Organisation shall have the right to avail itself, for telegraphic communications sent by it and containing only matter intended for publication by the press or for broadcasting (including communications addressed to or despatched from places outside Anguilla), of any reduced rates applicable for the corresponding service in the case of press telegrams.

REPRESENTATIVES ON ORGANS OR COMMITTEES OF THE UNION

Immunity and privileges

9. (1) Except insofar as in any particular case any privilege or immunity is waived by the Government whom they represent, representatives of members at the World Meteorological Congress, on the Executive Committee, at regional associations, on technical commissions, or on any committee of any of these bodies shall enjoy—

(a) while exercising their functions as such and during their journeys or detention and from seizure of their personal baggage and inviolability for all papers and documents; and

(b) immunity from legal process of every kind in respect of words spoken or written and things done or omitted to be done by them in their capacity as representatives.

(2) Where the incidence of any form of taxation depends upon residence, representatives shall not be deemed to be resident in Anguilla during any period when they are present in Anguilla for the discharge of their duties.

(3) For the purposes of the application of this section, the expression "representatives" shall be deemed to include, in addition to the representatives, the following members of their official staffs accompanying them as such representatives—

(a) alternate representatives;

(b) advisers;

(c) technical experts; and

(d) secretaries of delegations;

and Part 4 of the Schedule to the Act shall not operate so as to confer privileges or immunities on the staffs of representatives other than on those persons falling within the above-mentioned descriptions.

HIGH OFFICIALS OF THE ORGANISATION

Secretary-General

10. Except insofar as in any particular case any privilege or immunity is waived by the Organisation, any officer of the Organisation holding the office of Secretary-General (including any officer acting for him during his absence from duty) shall be accorded in respect of himself, his spouse and his children under the age of 21, the like immunity from suit and legal process, the like inviolability of residence and the like exemption or relief from taxes, other than income tax, as is accorded to an envoy of a foreign sovereign Power accredited to Her Majesty, his spouse and children, and exemption from income tax in respect of emoluments received by him as an officer of the Organisation.

OTHER OFFICIALS OF THE ORGANISATION

Immunities

11. Except insofar as in any particular case any privilege or immunity is waived by the Organisation, officials of the Organisation of any category specified by it shall enjoy—

(a) immunity from suit and legal process in respect of words spoken or written and things done or omitted to be done by them in the course of the performance of their official duties; and

(b) exemption from income tax in respect of emoluments received by them as officers or servants of the Organisation.

GENERAL

List of persons entitled to immunities and privileges

12. The names of the persons to whom the provisions of sections 9, 10 and 11 apply shall be set forth in a list compiled and published from time to time by the Governor under section 2(3) of the Act, and such list shall show in regard to each person the date as from which, for the purposes of this Order, he first held the office or employment in question and the date when he ceased to hold that office or employment.

Citation

13. These Regulations may be cited as the World Meteorological Organisation Order, Revised Regulations of Anguilla D25-10.
