Revised Regulations of Anguilla: F36-1

FIREWORKS ACT (R.S.A. c. F36)

FIREWORKS IN PUBLIC PLACES REGULATIONS

Note: These Regulations are enabled under section 12(b) of the Fireworks Act, R.S.A. c. F36.

Definitions

1. In these Regulations—

"authorised person" means a person—

(a) who has attained the age of 18 years; and

(b) who has not been convicted of an offence under the Act;

"permitted occasion" means—

(a) New Year's Eve;

(b) New Year's Day;

(c) Anguilla Day;

(d) the day set for the celebration in Anguilla of the birthday of Her Majesty the Queen;

(e) the day Carnival begins;

(f) Constitution Day;

(g) Separation Day; or

(h) Boxing Day;

"property" means a building or structure or personal property other than fireworks.

Conditions for setting off fireworks

2. Fireworks may be set off by an authorised person in a public place on a permitted occasion if—

(a) at all times when the fireworks are in the public place, they are under the control of an authorised person;

(b) the fireworks are set off at a distance of not less than 50 feet from persons, other than the authorised person, or from property;

(c) in the case of fireworks that are designed to be set off after being affixed in the ground or other place—

(i) each firework is firmly affixed in the ground or other place in such a manner as to be set off as designed and without setting off in the direction of people or property or of other fireworks in the vicinity, and

(ii) each firework affixed for setting off is separated from every other firework affixed for setting off, and from fireworks waiting to be set off, at such a distance that, when the firework is set off, it does not ignite the other fireworks; and

(d) in the case of fireworks, other than those referred to in paragraph (c)—

(i) if the fireworks are designed to be set off separately, each firework is set off in such a manner as not to ignite other fireworks, and

(ii) if the fireworks are designed to be set off as a unit, they are set off in such a manner as not to ignite any other fireworks than those composing the unit.
