Council noted the power point presentation by the Commissioner of Police on the crime situation in Anguilla. Council further noted the statistics for the years 2012-2015 relating to murders, thefts, burglaries and armed robberies, all of which had remained broadly static over the period. The CoP spoke about the challenges faced by the Royal Anguilla Police Force (RAPF), which included drug offences, financial crimes and money laundering, arson, criminal damage, criminal trespass and the increase in cultivation of cannabis plants. He pointed out that despite police efforts, small arms trafficking, drug trafficking, youth gang violence and money laundering continued to be threats to national security.

The Commissioner stressed the importance of Government's support to the RAPF and highlighted a number of areas which he believed could benefit the development of the RAPF

The Hon CM said that the criminal activity on the island was not just a matter for the police. The causes were complex, and many of the issues pointed out were systemic ones which needed a holistic approach in addressing them. He added that the progress made in addressing the issues had to be maintained. The CM stated that the Government was committed to working with the RAPF to combat crime on the island and to keep Anguilla relatively crime free.

Council thanked the RAPF for their hard work and commitment to the people of Anguilla. Council noted that the Commissioner of Police was due to retire in July and thanked him for his dedicated service to the RAPF and looked forward to his continued service to the people of Anguilla.
