

specified road or portion of a specified road for a specified time but, so long as that prohibition remains in force, the Traffic Commissioner shall erect and maintain traffic signs that shall state the substance of the order published in the Gazette and that shall be placed in such positions as shall give adequate notice thereof to drivers of vehicles.

(6) The Governor in Council may by order vary or revoke any of the provisions of Schedule 2, but an order under this subsection shall be of no effect unless and until it has been approved by a resolution of the House of Assembly.

Drivers under influence of liquor or drugs

51. (1) Any person who, when driving or attempting to drive, or when in charge of, a motor vehicle on a road is under the influence of drink or drug to such an extent as to be incapable of having proper control of the vehicle, is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term of 4 months, and in the case of a second or subsequent conviction either to a fine of $20,000 or to imprisonment for a term of 6 months or to both.

(2) A person convicted of an offence under this section shall, without prejudice to the power of the Court to order a longer period of disqualification, be disqualified for a period of 12 months from the date of the conviction and, if there is an appeal against the conviction, from the date on which the conviction is upheld for holding or obtaining a driver's licence, and, on a second conviction for a like offence, he shall be permanently disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence.

(3) Any member of the Police Force may arrest without warrant any person committing an offence under this section.

Causing death by reckless or by dangerous driving

52. (1) A person who causes the death of another person by the driving of a motor vehicle on a road recklessly or at a speed or in a manner that is dangerous to the public having regard to all the circumstances of the case, including the nature, condition and use of the road, and the amount of traffic that is actually at the time or which might reasonably be expected to be on the road, is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for 5 years or to a fine of $5,000 or to both.

(2) Section 31 of the Coroners Act shall apply to an offence against this section as it applies to manslaughter.

Reckless or dangerous driving

53. (1) Any person who drives a motor vehicle on a road recklessly, or at a speed or in a manner which is dangerous to the public, having regard to all the circumstances of the case including the nature, condition and use of the road, and the amount of traffic which is actually at the time or which might reasonably be expected to be on the road is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term of 3 years or to a fine or to both.

(2) A person convicted of an offence under this section shall, without prejudice to the power of the Court to order a longer period of disqualification, be disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence for a period of 6 months from the date of the conviction or, if there is an appeal against such conviction, from the date on which the conviction is upheld and, on a third conviction for a like offence, he shall be permanently disqualified from holding or obtaining a driver's licence.
