<sup>1</sup> Standard Industrial Trade Classification

CONSUMPTION GOODS

Consumption Goods accounted for EC$32.4 million of the total import bill, with all components experiencing increases over their corresponding November 2006 figures, except for the Beverages and Tobacco and Animal & Vegetable Oils, Fats & Waxes components.

The Manufactured Goods by Material component contributed the largest value to the Consumption Goods category with EC$17.6 million, 54.1% of the Consumption Goods. This component also registered the second highest increase of 51.8%, which was due in part, to increases in imports of items used in construction such as; blocks, tiles, cement, plywood, nails, doors and windows etc, which are currently in demand for use in the domestic and commercial related construction.

Additionally, during this month under review, imports within the component Food and Live Animals experienced the largest value increase of 55.2% over its corresponding 2006 figure. Also contributing the third highest figure to the Consumption Good category with EC$5.4 million, this accounted for 16.7% of Consumption Goods imports. This was in part due to the increases in imports of food items such as chicken, lobsters, potatoes etc.

The component Beverages and Tobacco experienced the highest decrease, when compared to its corresponding 2006 figure, of 20.5%, which was in part due to the decrease in the imports of alcoholic beverages, namely rum.

PRIMARY GOODS

Primary Goods accounted for EC$10.6 million, 17.0% of the total import bill. The component Mineral Fuels and Lubricants is the major contributor to this category, accounting for 43.8% of Primary Goods imports. This component also experienced an increase of 40.8% over its November 2006 imports, which was in part due to the increased imports of aviation spirits, diesel oil, propane and petroleum jelly.

Chemicals & Related Products contributed EC$4.2 million or 39.5% to the Primary Goods imports, an increase of 27.3% over its corresponding November 2006 figure.

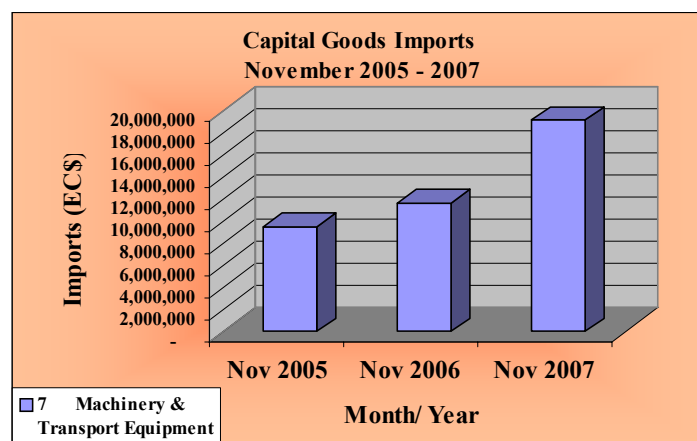

The component Crude Material, Inedible, except Fuels accounted for 16.7% of Primary Goods imports. This was an increase of 41.8% over its corresponding 2006 figure, which was in part due to the increase in the imports of palm trees, pitch pine and coniferous wood etc.

CAPITAL GOODS

Capital Goods accounted for EC$19.1 million, 30.8% of the total import bill, with Machinery and Transport Equipment being the sole component in this category experiencing a 63.7% increase over its corresponding November 2006 figure.

Imports of vehicles, vehicle parts, heavy equipments and house appliances such as air conditioning units, were some of the major contributors to the increase in this component.
