International Merchandise Trade Statistics Summary - October 2009

OVERVIEW

The balance of trade for October 2009 was, on average, one-half (50.4%) lower than the value of October 2008 trade. Exports fell by 56.9% to EC$1.1 million and imports were down 50.6% to EC$33.8 million.

The S.I.T.C.¹ categories used, showed that the value of all categories of goods imported declined this period, with decreases of 46.8%, 49.4% and 65.7% in Consumption Goods, Primary Goods and Capital Goods, respectively. Although, Consumption Goods had the lowest percentage change, the magnitude of the fall was the greatest, down EC$17.6 million from October 2008.

CONSUMPTION GOODS

Imports of Consumption Goods accounted for 59.1% of the total value of imports recorded for the period, with a documented total of EC$20.0 million. This value reflects a 46.8% reduction in imports, mainly caused by declining imports within the component Manufactured Goods by Material which fell by EC$13.6 million or 68.5% down from the corresponding period in 2008 to EC$6.3 million.

Items such as aluminum windows, doors and frames; steel bars and rods; cement; and blocks all had much lower imports. In spite of this massive reduction, this component remained one the of the largest import faintly shadowed by rising Food and Live Animals imports which now value EC$6.6 million, a 58.5% increase over October 2008. Items like milk, chicken, beef, ham, biscuits, rice and potatoes had comparatively large import bills to other food imports. The importation of Animal & Vegetable Oils, Fats & Waxes also increased 68.4% to EC$0.18 million.

The value of imports in the Beverages and Tobacco component were down 58.0% to EC$2.3 million and Miscellaneous items fell 41.2% to EC$4.7 million.

PRIMARY GOODS

Primary Goods accounted for EC$10.0 million or 29.6% of the total value of imports for October 2009 and experienced a 40.9% decline in imports.

In the three components of this category, there were declines in imports especially in the Chemical & Related Products component which fell by EC$5.2 million or 64.2% over October 2008 to EC$2.9 million this month.

Mineral Fuels, Lubricants which contributed the most to Primary Goods imports this period, fell 29.6% to EC$6.3 million.

Crude Materials, Inedible, Except Fuels was hit hard this month, falling 70.3% to EC$0.82 million.

CAPITAL GOODS

Capital Goods accounted for EC$3.8 million or 11.3% of the total imports for the period. When compared to October 2008, this value is EC$7.3 million lower or 65.7% less than the earlier period.

The decrease was in part driven by falling imports of vehicles, air conditioners, refrigerators and micro-computers.

EXPORTS

Exports, which include sending abroad goods that were produced locally and also the re-export of goods in the same condition that they were imported, have shown a 56.9% decrease over their corresponding figure in 2008. Total exports were recorded this month at EC$1.1 million.

Domestic exports alone, fell 90.3% to EC$0.20million compared to EC$2.0 million in October 2008.

Anguilla's balance of trade for October 2009 was EC$32.7 million, shrinking 50.4%.; mainly as a result of lower imports for the period.
