

'STATIPS' FOR THE MONTH OF DECEMBER 2005 HEALTH

WEEK 1

December 1

Did you know? In 2001, according to Census, 5.3% of people living in Anguilla said that they suffered from a long-standing illness, disability or infirmity. Of these persons, 51% of which were males.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

December 2

Did you know? 28% of the Anguillian population who suffered from a long-standing illness, disability or infirmity in 2001 were under 35 years of age.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

WEEK 2

December 5

Did you know? 20.7% of persons suffering with a disability in 2001 said that problems with their sight was the first disability.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

December 6

Did you know? 21.7% of the population suffering with a disability had it from birth, while 48.6% as a result of an illness.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

December 7

Did you know? According to Census 2001, 23.1% of the population who has a disability also has learning, remembering or concentrating as an activity limitation.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

December 8

Did you know? 73.9% of the employed Anguilla population in 2001 had insurance coverage.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

December 9

Did you know? In 2001, the population was asked to give the time that had elapsed since their last use of a medical facility, and 31.7% said more than a year had passed.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

WEEK 3

December 12

Did you know? The number of beds available at the Princess Alexandra Hospital fell by 10% in 1997 as did admissions by 4%.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

December 13

Did you know? The attendance to the Valley Dental Clinic in 2004 increased by 6.0%

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

December 14

Did you know? The number of fillings done at the Valley Dental Clinic increased by 7.3% in 2004.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

December 15

Did you know? In 2001 the fertility rate, for every 1000 women 15-44 years, was 2 children.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

December 16

Did you know? One of the major causes of death in Anguilla is related to the circulatory system, which includes strokes.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

WEEK 4

December 19

Did you know? The total deliveries performed at the Princess Alexandra Hospital in 2004 increased by 17.6%

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

December 20

Did you know? A person in Anguilla is expected to live for 79 years.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

December 21

Did you know? From 1995- 2004 there were 21 cases of stillbirths, this is when a baby dies before the complete expulsion or extraction from its mother.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

December 22

Did you know? The number of normal deliveries in 2002 fell by 22% and continued to fall, until 2004 when it rose by 5%.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

December 23

Did you know? There are 5 public health clinics in Anguilla. There is one located in East End, Welches, The Valley, South Hill and West End.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

WEEK 5December 26

Did you know? Between the decade 1995- 2004, there were 8 cases of neonatal deaths that is when a baby dies within 28 days of life.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

December 27

Did you know? In Anguilla between 2000-2002, most deaths of children under 7 years of age were caused mainly as a result of respiratory & cardiovascular disorders.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

December 28

Did you know? In 2004, the Government's primary health sector was privatised and is now managed by the Health Authority of Anguilla.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

December 29

Did you know? The official hospital for Anguilla is the Princess Alexandra Hospital, located in Pope Hill.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

December 30

Did you know? The death rate for Anguilla in 2004, was 4.2 for every 1000 people.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.