

'STATIPS'
FOR THE MONTH OF JANUARY 2005
CENSUS PEOPLE DATA
DEMOGRAPHY & CULTURE

WEEK 1

January 10

Did you know? According to the May 2001 Census conducted in Anguilla, Spanish was the language spoken most after English.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

January 11

Did you know? According to the May 2001 Census conducted in Anguilla, people of African decent made up 90% of the population compared to 78% in 1960.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

January 12

Did you know? According to the May 2001 Census conducted in Anguilla, 99% or 11,329 people speak English well enough to carry on a conversation. May 2001 Census was the first time that a question on languages was asked.

There were 101 people who did not speak English. They were mostly of pre-school age or working age. Of the people who cannot speak English, Spanish is the first language for 82 of them, followed by Chinese, which 7 non-English speakers speak. There are 1,054 people in Anguilla who speak more than one language, of whom 885 were 15 years of age or older.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

January 13

Did you know? According to the May 2001 Census conducted in Anguilla, Caucasian or whites made up 4% of the population in 2001 compared to less than 1% in 1960.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

January 14

Did you know? According to the May 2001 Census conducted in Anguilla, 29% of the population said that they were of the Anglican religion which was the most popular, followed by 24% who said they were Methodist. Pentecostal, Church of God, Seventh Day Adventist and Baptist all represented 7 to 8% of the population. While Roman Catholics represented only 6% of the population, they showed the strongest rate of growth since 1992 tripling their numbers during the nineties.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

WEEK 2

January 17

Did you know? According to the May 2001 Census conducted in Anguilla, of the respondent population of 11,430 persons, 70% were born in Anguilla or came here before one year of age. 8,087 persons fell into the "Born in Anguilla" category leaving 3,343 who were not born in Anguilla nor came before one year of age.

Of the "Born in Anguilla" persons, 881 or 11% were born overseas but came here before one year old.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

January 18

Did you know? According to the May 2001 Census conducted in Anguilla, 38% of the population said that they were married in 2001 compared to 38.2% in 1992. The percentage of people who were separated or divorced also showed little change in 2001 from 1992. The proportion of the population 15 years and over who said they were separated was 2.9% and divorced was 3.1% compared to 3% in 1992 for both statuses.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

January 19

Did you know? According to the May 2001 Census conducted in Anguilla, Baptists, Seventh Day Adventists and Pentecostals had at least 44% of their populations married. In contrast Anglicans, Methodists and those with no religion had more than half of their populations not married.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

January 20

Did you know? According to the May 2001 Census conducted in Anguilla, the most popular number of children among those who are married is 2, with 23% of the married population having two children. Among those who are not married most do not have children, although among those not married 19% have 3 or more children.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

January 21

Did you know? According to the May 2001 Census conducted in Anguilla, the most popular age for marriage among those who have never been in a union was 20 – 24 years of age, however among men the age group 25 – 29 years is slightly more popular.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

WEEK 3

January 24

Did you know? According to the May 2001 Census conducted in Anguilla, 38% of men and 30% of women had had no children in 2001 and. 2.3% of men and 2.0% of women who responded had had 10 or more children. In contrast 29% of men and 34% of women have one or two children.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

January 25

Did you know? According to the May 2001 Census conducted in Anguilla, 2.0% of the female population under 20 years of age had children compared to 0.4% of men. This trend continued up until the age of 35 years where a greater proportion of men had children than women.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

January 26

Did you know? According to the May 2001 Census conducted in Anguilla, there are 269 men and 1,008 women who had their first baby when they were under 20 years of age. Most people tend to have their first baby when they are in the 20 – 24 year age group. However for those 30 – 44 years, the most popular age group was slightly older at 25 – 29 years.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

January 27

Did you know? According to the May 2001 Census conducted in Anguilla, there are three women aged over 70 who said they had their last baby when they were 55 years and over. Most women tend to have their last babies in the 25 – 34 age group. There are 28 men over 55 years of age who had their last baby when they were older than 55. Men tend to have their last baby in the 30 – 39 age group.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

January 28

Did you know? According to the May 2001 Census conducted in Anguilla, there is a wide diversity in the number of years between which women have their first and last baby. Two thirds of women said that their last baby was born in Anguilla and the other third said their last baby was born overseas. Among women 75% Anguillian and 40% non-Anguillian had their last baby in Anguilla.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

January 31

Did you know? According to the May 2001 Census conducted in Anguilla, men tend to marry or live in a union at a slightly later age than women. 34% of men said that they were first married or living in a union at 25 to 29 years of age compared to 37% of women who said that they were first married at 20 – 24 years of age. 18% of women were married or living in a union before they were 20 years old compared to only 4% for men. 15% of men were not married until they were 35 years old compared to 9% for women.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.