

'STATIPS' FOR THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER 2005 LABOUR

WEEK 1

September 1

Did you know? A work permit is a legal instrument giving information required for employment of certain people for a specified job, for a specified period of time not exceeding one year.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

September 2

Did you know? Work permits in Anguilla are being issued to more male workers than female workers.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

WEEK 2

September 5

Did you know? Persons' requiring work permits have to be classed into the seven Occupation group categories, which are Professional & Technical, Administrative & Managerial, Clerical, Sales, Services, Agricultural and Production and Construction and Transport. The most work permits in 2004, 37%, were issued in the Production and Construction and Transport category.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

September 6

Did you know? Work permits in Anguilla are issued under the following categories: temporary, new and renewal.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

September 7

Did you know? Classification by work permits by status that is temporary, renewal and new, in 2004 were 857 and in 2003 were 781, which demonstrated an increase of 9.7% in 2004 compared to 2003.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

September 8

Did you know? An individual can obtain a work permit to either work for employment or self-employment.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

September 9

Did you know? More work permits are issued by type for employment than self-employment. In 2004 96% of holders of work permits were employed by others and 4% were self-employed issuances.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

WEEK 3

September 12

Did you know? Work permits are issued by country of birth of the recipient.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

September 13

Did you know? Work permits issued to residents of St.Kitts-Nevis, Jamaica, France, USA, Italy and Canada declined in 2004 compared to 2003.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

September 14

Did you know? Work permits issued to residents of Santo Domingo, Guyana, Other Caribbean islands, United Kingdom, China and Other (foreign countries) increased in 2004 compared to 2003.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

September 15

Did you know? The labour force population is composed of all those not living in institutions such as the prison who are 15 years of age and over. The age of 15 years and over is one, which is internationally recognised.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

September 16

Did you know? The labour force includes all persons in the population above 15 years and over whether employed or unemployed.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

WEEK 4

September 19

Did you know? Data from the Labour Force Survey of September 1999 indicated that there were 9,215 persons in the labour force aged 15 years and over.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

September 20

Did you know? The Labour Force Survey done in September 1999 concluded that unemployment was lower and employment higher during the peak tourist season which usually occurs from January to March of each year.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

September 21

Did you know? In Anguilla unemployed persons are persons 15 years and over who had no employment but, were available for work, except for temporary illness, and had made specific efforts to find employment sometime within a specified recent period. Persons who were waiting to be recalled to a job from which they had been laid off need not have been looking for work to be classified as unemployed.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

September 22

Did you know? The Unemployment rate represents the number of unemployed as a percentage of the labour force.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

September 23

Did you know? In Anguilla the average work week for full-time workers is 44 hours.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

WEEK 5

September 26

Did you know? In Anguilla the average work week for part-time employees is less than 44 hours per week.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

September 27

Did you know? Data from the Census 2001 shows that 6.7% of the labour force was unemployed.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

September 28

Did you know? From the Census 2001, unemployment by unmarried persons ranked the highest with a 58.1%, followed by legally married persons with 29.1%.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

September 29

Did you know? From the Census 2001 data, the Trade, Hotels & Restaurants industry employed the most people 38.6%, followed by Government Community and Social Services with 24.7%.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.

September 30

Did you know? Average employment income data shows that males receive more income than females.

For more statistics visit the Government of Anguilla website <http://www.gov.ai/statistics/> or call us on 497-5731.